

A roll of paper is shown against a background of cracked, dry earth. The roll of paper is positioned vertically, with its top edge showing a circular hole. The paper itself has a dark, textured appearance, resembling a tree trunk with visible wood grain. A single sheet of paper is unrolled from the right side of the roll, lying flat on the cracked ground. The overall scene is a powerful visual metaphor for the connection between paper and trees, emphasizing the environmental impact of paper consumption.
